

As a Registered Respiratory Therapist I support the proposed rule which will allow oxygen patients to carry the AirSep POC onboard aircraft. These patients need to remain mobile and have as many restrictions as possible removed so that they can do so. Approval of this rule will improve the quality of life for many who require supplemental oxygen.